

Challenges

- Innes McBeath Sourcing are a wholesale distributor of premium fragrances, cosmetics and skincare products.
- They procure and sell large quantities of prestige brands throughout Europe.
- Shipping valuable/fragile cargo to various European destinations.
- Re-work products for the European markets.

Solutions

Our high quality re-work team make sure the products are done to the highest standard so they adhere to local regulations and languages

Our carrier partners are of the highest standard and understand the value of delivering things right the first time while making sure all stock gets to its destinations undamaged. Our flexibility both in re-working and dispatching means we can meet the needs of this successful and growing business.

“Changing my logistics supplier was a big step for my business. I needed a company who would quickly understand the intricacies of my business and provide additional services to help my business grow. I chose DK Fulfilment and haven’t looked back since”
